Adult Wind and String Band Course with Jennie Henley and Jonathan Trim

Two five-day, evening courses designed specifically for adult players. The courses will run simultaneously and students will work together as a wind band or string orchestra as well as having the opportunity to work in chamber groups and full orchestra, depending on balance of instruments. The course is ideal for players who have not experienced chamber music playing and wish to play together in a friendly environment. The course is also suitable for more experienced players as it provides the opportunity to form chamber groups with players at a similar level that can be continued after the course

Previous students have said:

'I've had a most enjoyable week. It's been great to be able to continue playing with others out of term time and there has been a challenging but fun range of activities—e.g. whole groups, wind band, chamber groups, sectionals. I finished the week with a fine sense of achievement and fulfilment'

'Had a very enjoyable time. Great to play with a different group and try chamber pieces. Everyone keen to help and encourage everyone else.'

Booking Information

A deposit of £30 (deductible from the full amount) is payable with each application. In the event of a place not being available, this deposit will be refunded in full. If an application is withdrawn before the full amount becomes due (Friday 25th June), a 50% refund will be made. After this date, the deposit cannot be refunded except in proven cases of illness. Confirmation of acceptance will normally be sent within seven days of receiving the application. As places on the Music Technology Workshop are limited, if the course you apply for is full, you may be offered an alternative date.

Applicants should specify on the application form as to which course they wish to attend with preferred date and second option date if applicable. If applicants wish to book for more than one course then please use a separate form for each. For the orchestral courses, 'border-line' students may be given the opportunity to change course if it is felt appropriate.

All courses will run on a 'minimum number of students' basis. If your course does not run due to low student numbers, you will be notified by Friday 25th June and offered an alternative course or a full refund.
